Here are the latest updates from the North American Association of Summer Sessions in the month of September:

#NAASS22 Starts in Four Days!
- Are you attending the 2022 Annual Conference in Philadelphia?
- We can't wait for our first in-person conference since 2019 - click here to view the latest conference schedule and for an overview of our annual gathering.
- We encourage all of our conference attendees to post on social media throughout the conference! Tag us on Instagram @naass_org, or on Facebook and Twitter @naassorg, and be sure to use #NAASS22
- Questions prior to the conference? Contact us.

It's Time for the NAASS Tip of the Month
- Trend: Students often do not complete experience surveys at the end of programs. Such feedback is imperative for the development of programming in summer/special sessions.
- Solution: Post a QR code to a brief survey in high traffic locations for students to complete. Incentivize this initiative with entry into a raffle for each completed survey.
- Click here to view a sample image from Boston University Summer Term
- Have a NAASS Tip of the Month to share? Email us.
Renew your NAASS Membership - There’s Still Time!

- NAASS is still accepting membership renewals for 2022-2023.
- Be part of the rich community of summer and special session administrators in higher education - click here to renew today.
- Not sure if your institution is a member? View this page to see our updated member institution list.